I am seeking the role of Fourth Warden (non-progressing) to further facilitate the growth and value of the Worshipful Company of Management Consultants. Considering the Company Aims "Change through Wisdom", I will work as part of the leadership team, with the Master, other Wardens, Committee Chairs and Court, to promote and encourage excellence in the management consulting profession. Building on the knowledge and wisdom within the Company, I will aim to increase the intrinsic value in the short and medium term and assist to ensure long term sustainable success.

Professional Background

A Fellow and chartered procurement professional of the Chartered Institute of Procurement & Supply, I gained my early commercial and procurement expertise in the electricity supply industry. I have been practicing as an independent management consultant for more than 20 years and assist clients, in a variety of industry sectors, to develop and deliver purchasing and supply management strategies.

In parallel, I am fortunate to work with a global team of knowledge management experts, seeking to maximise the value of intangible assets and human capital.

Since joining the Company in 2013, I have been actively involved in a number of pro-bono assignments including mentoring CEOs and senior executives in the charity sector, which has enabled me to have a greater understanding of the sector. Additionally, I had the honour of being presented with the Heather Matheson Award, in 2020, for pro-bon contribution.
